Martin, W. O. James and daughter, Misses Betty Eller of Kansas City, C. E. Dowd, Mrs. E. L. Russell and children.

Mrs. Nixon gave a five-minute talk on current events. Mrs. Walling gave a review of "The Time Trial." Mrs. Black, Maeterlinck's chateau and the song, "The Bluebird," was given by Mrs. Barrows. Tea, biscuits served for guest tea at the close of the program during the social hour.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wager, whose marriage was a pretty event during the Halloween season, were given a surprise Monday evening when the Merry Methodist Madam and Barbers members of the First Methodist church went in a body to their home on South Main Avenue and surprised them with a handsome setting for them to enjoy during the coming year. The evening was then spent amid games and music.

Announcement Party.

Miss Hattie Mae Purdy entertained informally Monday evening, having 12 guests with her, the import being to announce the engagement and marriage during the holidays of Miss Ruby Perkins to Dr. L. G. Smith. Cupid as a messenger boy brought a telegram to the door with the news. The evening was delightfully spent amid music and congratulations.

Bridge Party.

Mrs. C. W. Brewer entertained Monday afternoon at bridge for Mrs. Clinton Strong of Clifton, Okla., who is the guest of Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. C. H. Lamb. Only friends in the city of this house were present, these being Mrs. Anna J. W. Michael, F. E. Bins, Alva Niles, M. A. Harrison, Mrs. C. H. Lamb and Misses Elizabeth and Ruby McNeil.

Informal Courtesy.

Mrs. Isaac Shuler and Mrs. Hubbard Whitney entertained with a small and informal but prettily appointed luncheon on Monday for Mrs. Marchand of California, who is being entertained in the home of her sister, Mrs. O. F. Sinks. The bill at the Orpheum later proved a happy conclusion to the afternoon.

Miss George D. Locke of Manhattan Court, Tulsa, has been elected to membership in the glee club at the University of Notre Dame. Dr. Daniel O'Connell, former president of the Orpheum club and of the Danish chapter of Chicago, of Notre Dame, gives high academic marks high rank among the more prominent choral organizations of the middle west. Mr. Locke is a junior in the college of engineering and is a member of the Notre Dame chapter of commerce.
